St. John Vianney Parish Mass Minister Schedule

Mid-February, March, April, May 2017

We always welcome parishioners to volunteer as ministers at all of our weekend Masses. I really must add that our Sunday 11:30 Mass has a critical need for additional ministers. If you are aware of parishioners that may be interested in serving, please have them contact Jim Shea, or Sister Janet.

Additional Mass Directors Needed for 11:30 Sunday Mass

We have a particular pressing need for additional Mass Directors at our 11:30 Sunday Mass. We still only have two couples currently serving as Mass Directors at this Mass and this requires them to serve in that capacity every other weekend. Just one or two additional Directors would allow only once a month scheduling.

Additional Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion Needed at 11:30 Sunday Mass

We continue to have shortages of Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (EMHC) at our 11:30 Sunday Mass. This ministry requires attendance at a Diocesan training session and a baptismal certificate before you can be scheduled to serve. We have scheduled a training session at our parish on March 19 from 2:00 until 3:30. You will also have to contact the parish where you were baptized in order to obtain a copy of your baptismal certificate with notations.

Training

Specific training as to each of the ministries is accomplished by assigning an experienced mentor to work with new ministers as they are integrated into the weekend Mass schedules.

There are published guidelines for all Mass Minister positions. They list assignments that need to be accomplished before, during, and after Mass. However, they should not be considered as hard and fast rules. For instance, a minister that has difficulty walking need not carry the Book of the Gospels in the procession before Mass even though he/she may be listed as L2 in the assignment printout. Assignments can be quietly discussed and reassigned during the brief prayer service in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel before Mass.

We Welcome New Mass Ministers

Peg McEvoy as EMHC at our 11:30 Mass – Mentor is Rick and/or Patty Warner.

God bless,

Jim Shea
