Dear Liturgical Ministers,

There has been a discussion about the return to the liturgical practice of the distribution of the Precious Blood at Mass. After reviewing the Saginaw Health Department's comments regarding Covid and after consultation with Diocesan priests, we will not be implementing this in the near future. We will continue to have three stations for the distribution of the Body of Christ.

We will be having a special training/re-training of ministers of the cup July 23 -24 after Masses given the expected eventual return to the practice of receiving communion under both species. Ministers of the cup will need to be especially mindful of the duty to wipe the cup inside and out and turn it for each person. Again, we are not prepared to return to this immediately. We also will need to get a head count before masses as to how many folks are actually willing/going to receive from the cup. No one is required to receive from the cup but the priest.

We also need to work out the task of the purification of the vessels. In the past, left over consecrated wine in each cup was consumed by that minister and then the priest is required to rinse out all cups and vessels and consume that water. Hopefully, you see why there is some reluctance to move too quickly toward this process given Covid. I know there are many priests and deacons reluctant to return to this too quickly. Also, the people who literally wash the cups and vessels need to use soapy water, rinse well and dry them well. The trick is to wash the chalice without getting water in the seams. It cannot be fully immersed in either soapy or rinse water! Vessels also need to be put away properly in the cupboard if there is no Mass following on Sundays.

We would like to welcome Ruth Galonska as a new Hospitality minister at the 10:00 Mass. We would also like to extend our gratitude to Dan and Jan Zielinski who have served as Mass ministers at the 10:00 o'clock Mass and in so many other vital positions of service. They have purchased a retirement home up north and will be leaving soon to bask in their retirement. We wish them the best. A J Flores has been a Hospitality minister at 10:00 Mass. He is leaving to attend college. We wish him success in achieving his education.

Since Michelle is leaving, I have volunteered to assume the responsibility of doing the Mass minister assignments. If you have concerns or questions, please reply to stjvianney64@aol.com and reference Mass Ministry in the subject line.

Please check your schedule and make sure you obtain a sub if you are unable to perform your assignment. Please remember to wear your name tag if you are on Hospitality

Thank you for your continued service,

Sister Janet
